From the Golf Committee

Many of us are now finding ourselves transitioning from summer to fall after events such as Le Fleur and Summer Classic have come and gone.

Cool, crisp autumn mornings that bring a relief from the hot summer days provide a chance to wear warm layers, creating a refreshing juxtaposition to the summer golf experience.

Fall golf offers opportunities to appreciate the scenic landscape and perhaps a more relaxed pace of play. You've had an entire golf season under your belt. Your swing feels good, your putting is spot on, and your chance to continue into fall is outstanding. Fall golf at its best.

The Golf Committee appreciates your continued valuable input as we relay the club's voice to management and staff to make Lakewood Oaks a better place for all of us.

STIVAL PINOT GRIGIO

This pinot grigio from the Stival winery in northern Italy puts other white wines to shame. The fruit of the season is ever present in its aroma stemming from its creation from the Veneto Region's most popular grape. The Stival Pinot Grigio pairs beautifully with shellfish, mushrooms, and vegetarian diets. Light drinking at its finest!
