From the General Manager

MARK REID

Heading into the last quarter of the year, I am already looking back on what was a wonderful year of golf. Hitting our goal of 325 members this year was an important accomplishment and will help immensely in achieving our forward-looking goals. We will continue to work behind the scenes to plan for 2022 and I look forward to sharing the Board's decisions with you in the December ClubLife issue.

I could not be prouder; we all look forward to better days without the threat of Covid-19 variants...

Wine of the Month

OUTER SOUNDS SAUVIGNON BLANC MALBOROUGH

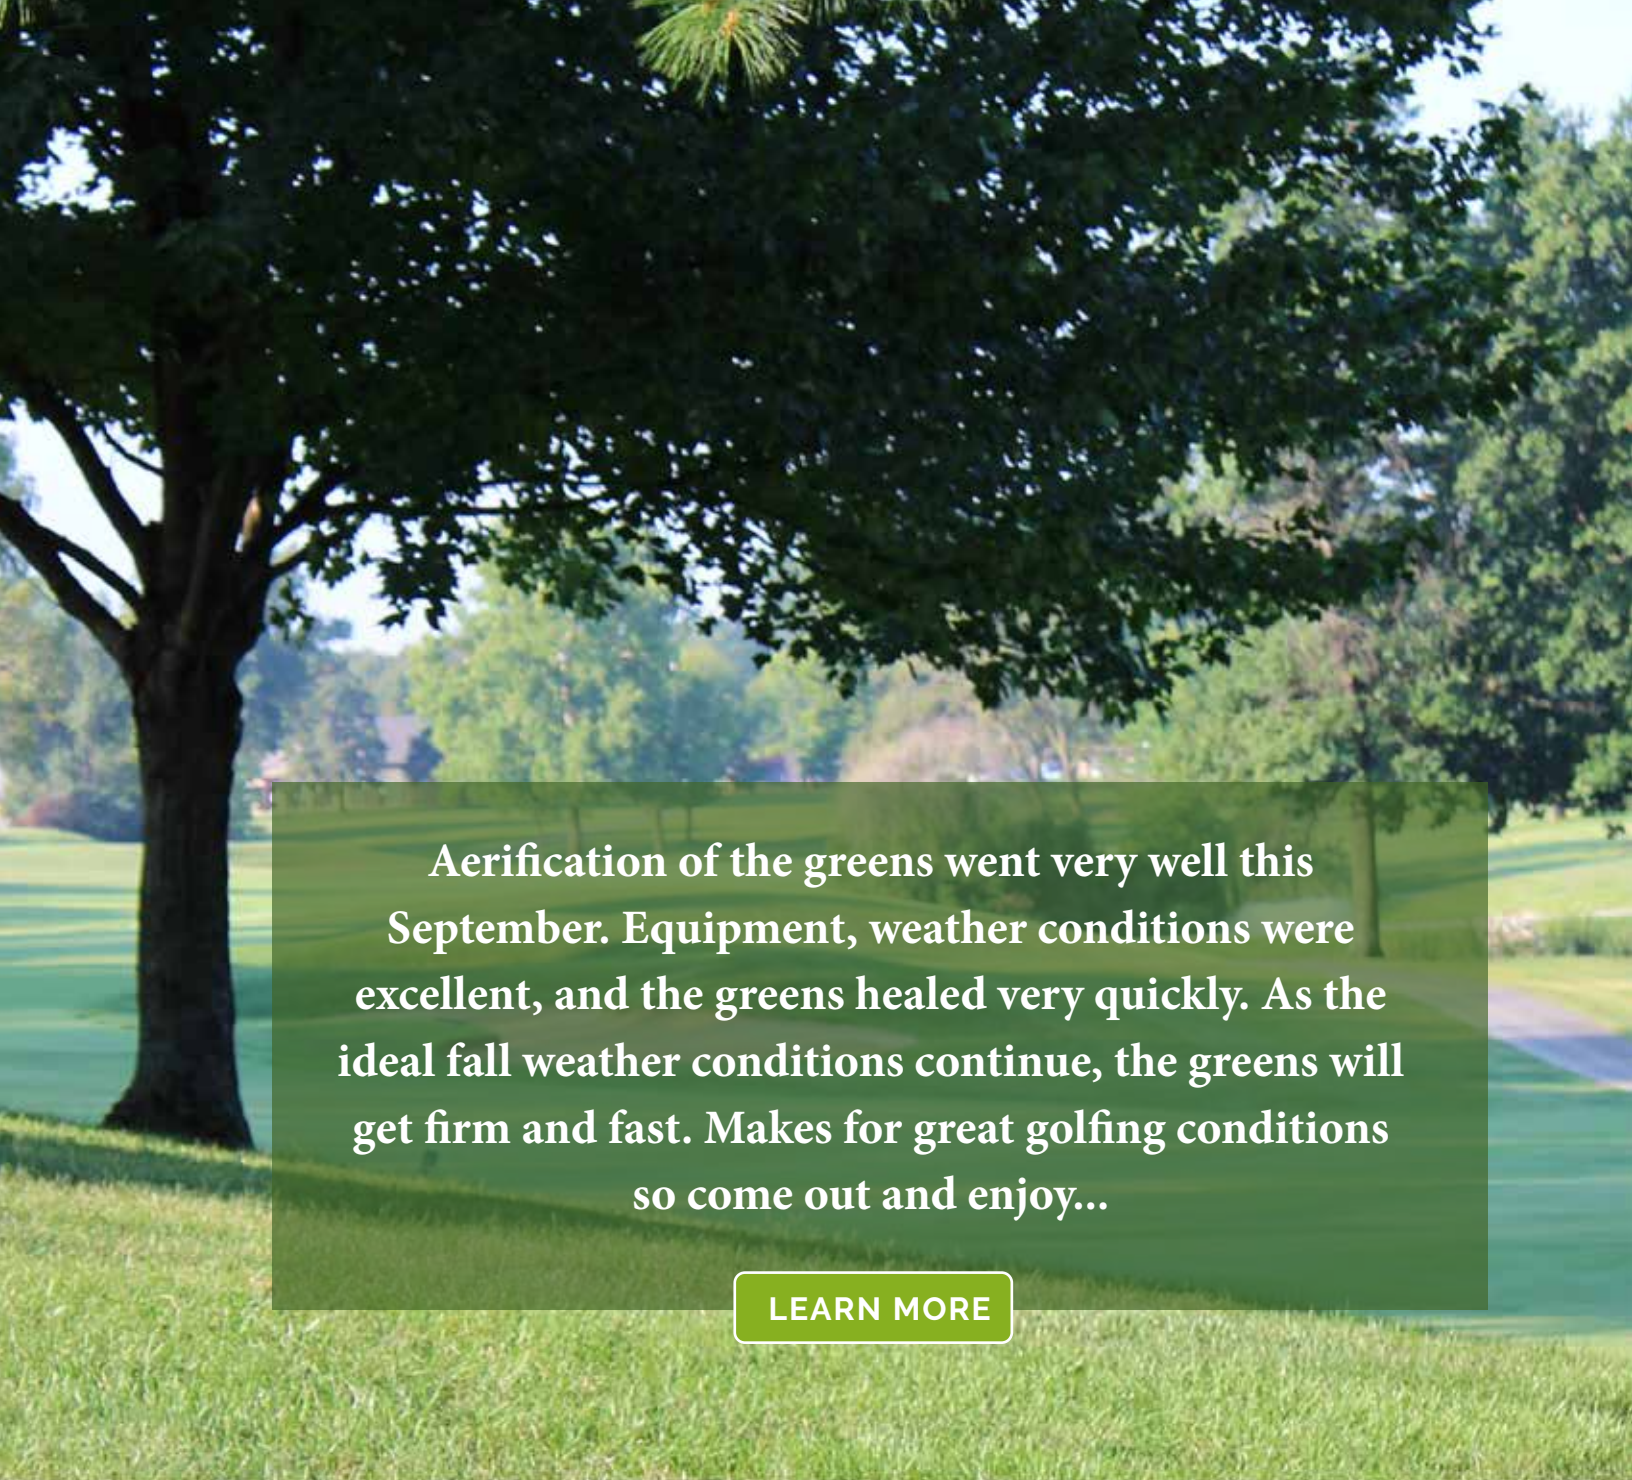

Like a travel partner, ready for any adventure at hand, this white wine is inviting and full of adventure. Fruity being its dominant trait, the green and grassy highlights bring a light accent to the overall flavor profile.

Turf Tip

STEVE GRIESINGER,
GOLF COURSE SUPERINTENDENT

A large, mature tree with dense green foliage stands on the left side of a golf course green. The background shows a rolling landscape with more trees and a clear sky. The foreground is a grassy area.

Aerification of the greens went very well this September. Equipment, weather conditions were excellent, and the greens healed very quickly. As the ideal fall weather conditions continue, the greens will get firm and fast. Makes for great golfing conditions so come out and enjoy...
