From the General Manager

MARK REID

After a very fun and successful Summer and with Thanksgiving right around the corner, I am already feeling very thankful. I am thankful that the WGA had such a wonderful Le Fleur Tournament under beautiful skies and perfect weather conditions. I am thankful for Paula Austin and her team as well as Chef Molly and the Food and Beverage Staff for organizing and executing a fantastic Luau. This Hawaiian themed event was one of the best I have seen and was sure to please both members and guests. I am thankful for all of my Staff who have worked hard to keep the course looking good after the bunker construction and for keeping up with a possible record number of rounds this year. I am thankful that our ClubLife magazine has evolved into a very readable and interesting publication for our membership. I am thankful that our strong Club has a great outlook for the future.

It feels good to be thankful and appreciative of what we have. Thank you all.

Your guide to professional golf club refinishing at home.

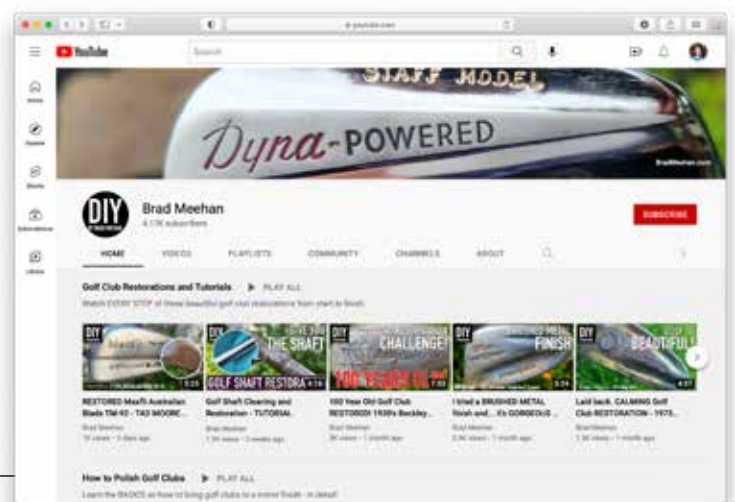

ARTICLE WRITTEN BY CARIANN DUREKA

We are honored to feature this Lakewood Oaks golf member in our September newsletter: Brad Meehan, who has been a member for 3 years—has developed a passion for golf club restoration and sharing the process on his self-titled YouTube channel.

Though Brad had done some casual play in the past, the LOCC was the first golf club he'd ever joined. He was encouraged by his friends and fellow golfers to join, but even then, he didn't feel like he was more than casual player—so he didn't want to invest in an expensive new club. This led Brad to seeking out used clubs; and while functionally they were just as good as a newer club, he wanted to breathe some life back into them, and learned how to polish them. A man of many hobbies and skills; Brad was once a stand-up comic and a commercial actor, and he has always had an interest in restoration. His first restoration project was actually a motorcycle, despite never having ridden one. When he first began restoring golf clubs, the techniques he

SIMPLE ROASTED BUTTERNUT SQUASH

Roasted butternut squash is so good on its own that barely any seasoning is needed! In this simple recipe, we focus on the basics—olive oil, garlic, salt, and pepper—and leave any additional garnishes up to you—chopped parsley, shaved Parmesan and toasted pine nuts or walnuts are all winners—This quick and easy butternut squash recipe can pair well with grilled fare as summer winds down.

Serves 4

Ingredients

1 medium butternut squash
2 tablespoons olive oil
2 cloves garlic, minced
Salt and ground Black pepper to taste

Directions

Step 1

Preheat the oven to 400 degrees F°

Step 2

Peel butternut squash with a sharp vegetable peeler. Cut in half lengthwise; scoop out and discard seeds. Cut halves into 1-inch slices, then cut slices into 1-inch cubes.

Step 3

Combine butternut squash cubes, olive oil, and garlic in a large bowl and toss until well coated. Season with salt and pepper (if you opt to try other seasonings or herbs, add these as well.) Arrange in a single layer on a baking sheet.

Step 4

Roast in the preheated oven until squash is lightly browned and tender when pierced with a fork, 25 to 35 minutes.

Optional Additions

Thyme
Rosemary
Sage
Cinnamon
Nutmeg
Cayenne pepper
Paprika
Honey
Maple or agave syrup
Cumin
Red pepper flakes

Think of what seasonings and herbs you can mix to get a unique flavor in each batch—Cumin, Cayenne and Paprika would make for a savory, spicy batch, where Cinnamon, Maple Syrup and Nutmeg could work in a sweeter application!

Wine of the Month

ZESTOS OLD VINE GARNACHA

Our wine of the month is the Zestos Old Vine Garnacha, a bright and silky wine that pairs well with smoked and grilled meat. A wine out of Madrid, Spain, Garnacha is one of Spain's most widely planted red grape varieties. A perfect wine for the beginning of fall, we hope you will try it at the Argyle.

GOLF COURSE SUPERINTENDENT

Aerification of the greens is scheduled for September 12 and 13. With perfect weather and no mechanical breakdowns, we be in touch with the Pro Shop to the exact time we will open. Thank you for allowing us to close to perform this necessary procedure. Below is an article from the GCSAA (Golf Course Superintendents Association). Pretty interesting.

Sometimes It's Good to Vent

Presented by the Golf Course

Superintendents Association of America

It's a perfect, sunny morning and you've just reached the first green in regulation. You feel great and you know you're within birdie range.

Then, you see them, those little holes in the green. Arrggh! They've just aerified the course, and it's going to ruin your round, right?

Well, maybe not. Consider the fact that PGA TOUR legend Tom Watson shot a sizzling record 58 at his then-home course, Kansas City Country Club, just days after the greens had been aerified.
