From the General Manager

MARK REID

The Golf tournament season may be winding down, but there are still plenty of days left to enjoy the Oaks Course. I want to congratulate our women's golf players for winning in their respective categories in the 2023 Lakewood Oaks WGA Le Fleur tournament. It was a special tournament being their 40th year of holding it.

It has been reassuring to see the Oaks Club thriving this year, both in terms of tournaments and in membership. Additionally, we are excited for the return of the Rocking the Fairway fall celebration in October for a second year as a way to show our appreciation for our golf members.

This year has certainly been interesting, and gave us some hurdles to overcome to maintain the level of accessibility and usage members are used to. I want to thank our members for their patience throughout this season with the repairs being conducted around the Clubhouse, as well as understanding our limitations for banquets this year with the LPOA and LHC offices occupying half the banquet rooms. We have worked hard to ensure members and those that choose to host their banquets or tournaments at the Lakewood Oaks Golf Club are not just satisfied with their experience, but that both members and guests are proud of our food and beverage, level of service, and accommodations we provide. For an update on the Clubhouse repairs, we now estimate the offices will be complete in early October. We believe the renovation of the lobby, offices and bathrooms will be first class and well worth the wait.

This sheet-pan sausage and veggies recipe makes the perfect weeknight dinner. We opt for andouille chicken sausage, but you could easily substitute any other cooked chicken or pork sausage you prefer. If you have leftovers, try adding the sausage, peppers and onions to a roll with grainy mustard for a flavorful sandwich.
