MARK KRTEK

On behalf of everyone at our golf course, thank you for your support, enthusiasm, and commitment. Whether you are sinking putts in the early morning mist or enjoying a sunset view from the clubhouse, know that you are part of a vibrant, welcoming, and inspiring community.

We are coming upon the season with some great golf left to be played and enjoyed. We will be working in the coming months to ensure we start to lay a good foundation for next year's season. Obviously, some of this maintenance requires us to either close the course or modify play. We understand these modifications come at a price and effects your ability to enjoy the course and appreciate your understanding that these are needed to ensure we have a great golf course for you to enjoy...

Turf Tip

STEVE GRIESINGER,
GOLF COURSE SUPERINTENDENT

Rough and green bank maintenance will start at the end of the month and continue through October with aerification, seeding, and fertilization. With the seed, plugs and thatch laying around the greens it can be a problem not only for golfers, but also for machines mowing the greens and green banks—so please be patient as we work through this process. Also, there could be additional irrigation to areas to maintain moisture on the young seedlings to help with germination, so carts may be controlled away from these areas with the GPS geo fencing.

Leaves will also be the hot topic in the next couple of months. We will do our best to blow, mulch, and control the leaves as they begin to fall. This process is labor intensive as wind direction and conditions dictate where we can and cannot move the leaves (ie, not into homeowners' yards).

See you on the course!

NEW | LUJON WINE CELLARS SYRAH

Joining the Argyle Wine menu as our first Syrah, this Walla Walla Valley Red is well-made and medium-bodied which replaces heft with a nice balance between elevated acidity and silky tannins. Aromas of black cherries and melon wrapped in prosciutto are joined by a wee bit of leather. Sweet blackberries nicely counterpoint black tea, black pepper and ginger flavors.
